

13:00- 14:30 – Lunch

14:30 – 17:30 - Day to Day Administration

- Rute Pardal (University of Évora): Institutional discourses and daily practices in the Évora hospital of Espírito Santo (seventeenth and eighteenth centuries)

- Fritz Dross (University of Düsseldorf): Their daily bread: Managing hospital finances in early modern Germany

15:30-15:45 –Coffee Break

- Renilda Barreto (Centro Federal de Educação Tecnológica, Celso Suckow da Fonseca): The Santa Casa da Misericórdia of Bahia and the assistance to sick people in the nineteenth-century

- Carmen Mangion (Birkbeck College, University of London): Local patronage and gender: Administrative management at St Joseph's Convalescent Home, Bourne-mouth, 1874-1900

- Reflections

- Lead Discussant: Jonathan Reinartz (University of Birmingham)

17:30 – Visit to the Évora Historical Center

Useful Contacts:

Hotel Fénix Urban

Sónia Vicente

sonia.vicente@hfhhotels.com

Tel.: (+351) 213 515 000

Av. António Augusto de Aguiar, 14

website

Clara Jardim Restaurante/Clara Garden Restaurant

Campo Mártires da Pátria,

nº 49 - Lisbon

website

“Varanda de Lisboa” Restaurant

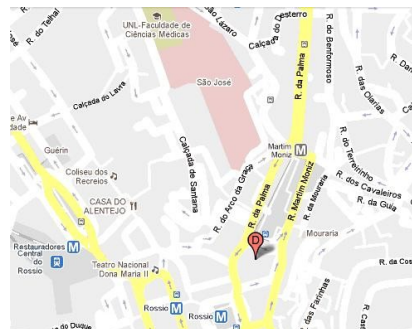

Hotel Mundial

Praça Martim Moniz 2 —

Lisbon

Tel. +351 218 842 000

website

VI Annual Conference of the International Network for the History of Hospitals

“Daily Life in the Hospital: Theory and Practice”

Lisbon and Évora, 8th to 10th April 2011

Supported by:

FCT Fundação para a Ciência e a Tecnologia
MINISTÉRIO DA CIÊNCIA, TECNOLOGIA E ENSINO SUPERIOR

Daily Life in the Hospital: Theory and Practice

7th April 2011

Venue: Hotel Fénix Urban—Lisbon

18.00 – Welcome Drink

8th April 2011

Venue: Library—Service 6—Hospital Capuchos—
Centro Hospitalar de Lisboa Central—Lisbon

9:00 – 9:45 – Opening lecture

Annmarie Adams (McGill University): Hospital Design: The Architectures of daily Life

10:00 – 13:00 - Making and Breaking the Rules

- Susan Edgington (Queen Mary College, University of London): Regulations for the administration of the hospital of St John in Jerusalem, c. 1180
- Sue Hawkins and Andrea Tanner (Kingston University): Myth, marketing and reality: Life in Victorian and Edwardian children's hospitals

11:00-11:15 –Coffee Break

- Jane Stevens-Crawshaw (Oxford Brookes University): Corrupting the body and corrupting the soul in early modern Venice: The case of Mr and Mrs plague hospital
- Carole Rawcliffe (University of East Anglia, Norwich): A crisis of confidence? Parliament and the demand for hospital reform in early fifteenth-century England

12:30 – 14:00 – Lunch at Clara Garden Restaurant

14:00 – 16:30 – Organising the Patient

- Teresa Huguet-Termes (University of Barcelona): "Gendered lives and medicine in late medieval Spanish hospitals"
- Sally Sheard (University of Liverpool): Theories and practices of post-operative convalescence in British hospitals since 1840

15:00-15:15 –Coffee Break

-
- Sarah York (University of Warwick): Preventing self-destruction: The organisation and management of suicidal lunatics in English public asylums, c. 1845-1880
- John Chircop (University of Malta): Hospitalising the insane in two British colonial sites in the Mediterranean, 1800-1860s

16:30 – Visit to the Hospital de São José – Centro Hospitalar de Lisboa Central

20:00—Dinner: "Varanda de Lisboa" Restaurant

9th April 2011

Venue: Colégio do Espírito Santo —
Room 124 - Évora

9:30 – 11:00 –Doing the Rounds (I)

- David Theodore (Harvard University): Architecture and nursing in post-war hospitals
- Sharon Strocchia (Emory University, Atlanta): Nuns and hospital work in renaissance Florence Routine and Medicalisation
- Timothy D. Walker (University of Massachusetts): Supplying simples for the royal hospital: Hybridized Indo-Portuguese medical culture

11:00– 11:30 – Coffee break

11:30 – 13:00 –Doing the Rounds (II)

- Christopher Bonfield (University of East Anglia, Norwich): Therapeutic regimes for bodily health in medieval English hospitals
- Jon Arrizabalaga (CSIC-IMF Barcelona): Coping with the mal serpentino de la Ysla Española in renaissance Lisbon
- John Henderson (Birkbeck College, University of London): Treating the Great Pox in renaissance Italy
- Laurinda Abreu/Estaban Ocăna (University of Évora/Granada University): Competing/Conflicting tasks? The training of professionals and the care of patients at the Hospital de Todos os Santos (Lisbon) in the sixteenth to eighteenth century