Urgent and Emergency Health Care
Academic year 2022/2023

1. The program is promoted by:

Universidade de Évora - Escola Superior de Enfermagem S. João de Deus

2. Course Committee:

Maria do Céu Marques (mcmарques@uevora.pt)

3. Program description:

The postgraduate course in Urgent and Emergency Health Care has as main goal the training of health professionals, qualified to respond to the needs in health care, of increasingly demanding and challenging contexts. Students are expected to develop conceptual, instrumental and relational competencies, which are indispensable for health care in transporting patients in different contexts. The simulation, the technology and the different learning scenarios constitute strategies that allow to promote the learning and consolidation of the knowledge. The course has two semesters, the first of which are structural curricular units in the area of the course, such as Ethics, Research and Policies and Health Care Models. The second semester is dedicated exclusively to the theme of urgent and emergency health. A protocol was established with Femédica, an accredited entity in the area of medical emergency.

4. Career opportunities:

Professionals who choose to undertake this training may exercise the course in any health organization that provides care to people with injuries: Hospitals General and Specialized both public and private; Health centers; Medical and Nursing Clinics; Integrated National Care Network.

5. Program Creation Norm:

6. General conditions of access and admission:

i Conditions for access to the post-graduate program

The following individuals can apply for a post-graduate program:

- holders of a Portuguese Licenciado degree or legal equivalent;
- holders of a foreign higher education undergraduate degree, which is recognized as satisfying the objectives of the degree of Licenciado by the competent scientific committee of the higher education institution where they wish to be admitted;
- holders of an academic, scientific or professional curriculum which is recognized as attesting the ability to carry out this cycle of studies by the competent scientific committee of the higher education institution where they wish to be admitted.

ii Conditions of access to the post-graduate program at the University of Evora

On the application date, the undergraduate students must satisfy conditions that guarantee the conclusion of their undergraduate degree until the 30th of October of the admission year. The admission and enrollment of these students is conditioned on the conclusion of the degree until this date, and the enrollment is canceled if the student does not complete the degree within that period.

During the first application phase, students who have a maximum of 6 curricular units or 36 ECTS missing for conclusion of their degree can apply for the 2nd cycle; in the 2nd application phase students can apply if they have at most 3 curricular units missing and in the 3rd application phase if they have at most one curricular unit missing.

The previous condition does not apply to students with a curriculum that reveals professional or scientific experience, which can be recognized by the competent scientific body, as attesting the student's ability to carry out the master's degree/post-graduation, provided that the student required that recognition in the application process.
