3. Program description:

The Graduate Program in Education Inspection was created in 2018 required by the Ministry of Education of the Democratic Republic of São Tomé and Príncipe, in response to a need for specialized training for inspectors and other educational agents. The course had its first edition in the 2017-2018 academic year, four years later, the Ministry of Education of the Democratic Republic of São Tomé and Príncipe requested the opening of a new edition based on the need to promote and consolidate the specialized training of education with the purpose of carrying out the attributions of the St. Tomé Educational Inspection.

This course aims to provide the development of specialized skills for the performance of tasks, such as control, audit, follow-up activities, evaluation and supervision of education and teaching establishments, guaranteeing an innovative, rigorous and effective intervention in the daily inspection action.

The study plan includes four mandatory curricular units of the Master in Educational Sciences - Administration and Regulation of Educational Policies (MARPE) and two optionals that can be chosen from an offer mostly fixed by curricular units of MARPE, with the prospect of achieving master's degree.

6. General conditions of access and admission:

i Conditions for access to the post-graduate program

The following individuals can apply for a post-graduate program:

- holders of a Portuguese Licenciado degree or legal equivalent;
- holders of a foreign higher education undergraduate degree, which is recognized as satisfying the objectives of the degree of Licenciado by the competent scientific committee of the higher education institution where they wish to be admitted;
- holders of an academic, scientific or professional curriculum which is recognized as attesting the ability to carry out this cycle of studies by the competent scientific committee of the higher education institution where they wish to be admitted.

ii Conditions of access to the post-graduate program at the University of Evora

On the application date, the undergraduate students must satisfy conditions that guarantee the conclusion of their undergraduate degree until the 30th of October of the admission year. The admission and enrollment of these students is conditioned on the conclusion of the degree until this date, and the enrollment is canceled if the student does not complete the degree within that period.

During the first application phase, students who have a maximum of 6 curricular units or 36 ECTS missing for conclusion of their degree can apply for the 2nd cycle; in the 2nd application phase students can apply if they have at most 3 curricular units missing and in the 3rd application phase if they have at most one curricular unit missing.

The previous condition does not apply to students with a curriculum that reveals professional or scientific experience, which can be recognized by the competent scientific body, as attesting the student's ability to carry out the master's degree/post-graduation, provided that the student required that recognition in the application process.

iii Specific admission conditions
